IT'S ALL ABOUT THE EXPERIENCE

The history of Broadway Theatre

Walter Murray and Thomas Keane, actor-managers, established the first significant theatre in New York City in 1750. They established a resident theatre company at a theatre on Nassau Street that held approximately 280 people. Shakespeare plays and ballad operas like The Beggar's Opera were presented at the theatre. William Hallam sent a company of twelve British actors to the colonies along with his brother Lewis, who was also his manager, two years later in 1752. In Williamsburg, Virginia, they established a theatre, opening with The Merchant of Venice and The Anatomist. The following summer in 1753, the company moved from Williamsburg to New York, where they performed ballad operas and ballad-farces.

The first "long-run" musical on Broadway was The Elves, which was presented in 1857 and ran for fifty shows. Musical runs in New York noticeably lagged behind musicals in London's West End. New York records were shattered when Laura Keane debuted her "musical burletta" in 1860 called The Seven Sisters. The show ran for a total of 253 performances.

Today, the longest running show on Broadway is Andrew Lloyd Webber's The Phantom of the Opera, which began previews in early 1988 and opened at the end of January that year. On February 11, 2012, it became the first Broadway musical to ever surpass 10,000 performances. And by November of 2016, the musical had been performed over 12,000 times in 28 years.

Bursting with glamour, charm, and all the iconic moments you know and love, this joyous musical hit will premiere at the Lyric Theatre, QPAC this October. Featuring direction and choreography by two-time Tony Award® winner Jerry Mitchell (Kinky Boots, Legally Blonde, Hairspray), an electrifying original score by Grammy® winner Bryan Adams and Jim Vallance ('Summer of '69', 'Heaven'), and a book by the movie's legendary director Garry Marshall and screenwriter J.F. Lawton, this sensation brings a Hollywood classic to life like never before. Vivian and Edward are unlikely soulmates who overcome all odds to find each other – and themselves. Brought to life by a powerhouse creative team representing the best of music, Hollywood, and Broadway, Pretty Woman: The Musical is a guaranteed big night out that will lift your spirits and light up your heart.

The New York Times calls it "the best musical of this century." The Washington Post says, "It is the kind of evening that restores your faith in musicals." And Entertainment Weekly says, "Grade A: the funniest musical of all time." It's THE BOOK OF MORMON, the nine-time Tony Award®-winning Best Musical.

This outrageous musical comedy follows the misadventures of a mismatched pair of missionaries, sent on a mission to a place that's about as far from Salt Lake City as you can get. THE BOOK OF MORMON has truly become an international sensation.

The cast will include Sean Johnston (Hairspray) as Elder Price, Nick Cox (Beauty and the Beast) as Elder Cunningham, Paris Leveque who is making her professional debut as Nabulungi, Tom Struik (Sister Act the Musical) as Elder McKinley, Simbarashe Matshe (Filthy Business) as Mafala Hatimbi, Augie Tchantcho who is reprising his role in THE BOOK OF MORMON as The General and Matthew Hamilton (Tina – The Tina Turner Musical) as Mission President. Further casting announcements will be made in the coming months.

Experience Jonathan Larson's electrifying, multi-Tony® Award winning musical, in this electrifying, critically-acclaimed new production.

Step into the vibrant streets of New York City's East Village, where dreams are born, friendships are tested, and the power of love prevails against all odds. Featuring the iconic songs "Seasons of Love", "Take Me or Leave Me" and "La Vie Bohème", this groundbreaking phenomenon is more than a musical; it's a celebration of life, love, and the human spirit. Don't miss your chance to discover the show that took Broadway by storm. "Rent" follows a group of struggling young artists and musicians living in New York City's East Village in the late 1980s, as they navigate poverty, illness, and the AIDS epidemic. Inspired by Puccini's La Bohème, the musical explores themes of love, friendship, and the human spirit in the face of adversity. The story centers around Mark, an aspiring filmmaker, and his roommate Roger, a musician, who are both grappling with personal struggles, including Roger's HIV-positive status and the impact of grief from a past tragedy. The musical also features Maureen and Joanne, a couple whose relationship is tested by Maureen's infidelity, and Angel, a drag queen, and Collins, who share a passionate and poignant love.
